3 types of Arabic Words

In Arabic all words can be categorized as follows[1]:

1. Ism إِسْمٌ or Noun
2. Fil فِعْلٌ or Verb
3. Harf حَرْفٌ or Particle (like preposition in English but actually it covers more)

Harf حَرْفٌ

In Arabic all words can be categorized as follows:

3. Harf حَرْفٌ or Particle: A word that does not make any sense itself unless it is combined with another word.
   Example Sentence: Somebody asks you, "Where are you going?"
   And you answered, "To" In this case your answer says nothing.
   But if you say, "To the school", now it makes sense. So the word "To" is a Harf.

   Examples: About, Around, Toward, In, At, The, Until, Like, on

Harf حَرْفٌ is broader than Preposition in English (as Harf is commonly understood as preposition in English)

In the context of Arabic Language, Harf حَرْفٌ can be conceptualized in the following categories:

- Prepositions and Conjunctions
- Words indicating Emphasis
- Particles of Negation
- Conditional Particles
- Particles of Interrogation
- Connectors

Harf حَرْفٌ: Examples

- A particle comes before the word that it links to. It can be composed of one, two, or three letters.

Examples:

إِلَى towards	فِي In	مِنْ from	لِ for	بِ in/with

Fil فِعْلٌ Verb

2. Fil فِعْلٌ or Verb: A word that is stuck in time (present, past or future).

   Fil فِعْلٌ has the many formats often termed as Verb Conjugation Forms, which will be covered by other lesson.

   Examples: He went home yesterday. I will attend the meeting next month. We exercise everyday.

Ism إِسْمٌ or Noun

1. Ism إِسْمٌ or Noun. An Ism can be typically described as an Noun.

   It could mean the name of:

   - Person, Place, Thing, Idea (not physical), Adjective, Adverb and more.

Properties of Ism إِسْمٌ

4 Chapters / Properties of Ism إِسْمٌ

Status of Ism إِسْمٌ

There are 3 status of Ism إِسْمN:

1. Raf' رَفْع (Nominative): Doer of the verb
2. Nasb نَصْب (Accusative): Details of the verb
3. Jarr جَرّ (Genitive): The word after "OF"

Status of Ism إِسْمٌ: Example in English

Now we can ask the following questions:

2. What did the student eat? Ans: sandwich
3. Where did he eat? Ans: Outside the class
4. When did he eat? Ans: Early in the morning
5. How did he eat? Ans: Slowly

- Here Only Question 1 is all about the doer of the verb (eat) whose answer is "the student" so, it is Raf' رَفْع (note: here "ate" is the verb)

Status of Ism إِسْمٌ: Example in English

Consider the following sentence:

The student ate his sandwich slowly outside the class early in the morning.

Now we can ask the following questions:

1. Who ate lunch? Ans: The student
2. What did the student eat? Ans: sandwich
3. Where did he eat? Ans: Outside the class
4. When did he eat? Ans: Early in the morning
5. How did he eat? Ans: Slowly

- Here Only Question 1 is all about the doer of the verb (eat) whose answer is "the student" so, it is Raf' رَفْع (note: here "ate" is the verb)
- While others are all details of the verb (i.e. eat) so all of them (ans to other questions) they are Nasb نَصْب

Status of Ism إِسْمٌ: Example in English

Previous sentence:

The student ate his sandwich slowly outside the class early in the morning.

- Here we find "his sandwich" which can be written as "sandwich of his"
- Similarly, we can write "Allah's Messenger" as "Messenger of Allah"
- "Our religion" ⟶ "Religion of ours"
  "Your life" ⟶ "Life of yours"

In these examples, the words "his, Allah, ours, yours" appear after "of" so they are Jarr جَرّ

Status of Ism N إِسْم: in Arabic

- ال إِعْرَاب or Case: The term Irb reflects a specific role that every noun carries.

1. Raf' رَفْع (Doer) ends with ـٌ or ـُ
2. Nasb نَصْب (Details of verb) ends with ـًا or ـَ
3. Jarr جَرّ (word after OF) ends with ـٍ or ـِ

We may use the acronym "RU NA JI" to remember them.

Status of Ism إِسْمٌ: in Arabic (Cont.)

Example: The world مُسْلِمٌ A Muslim

Raf' رَفْع (Doer)	Nasb نَصْب (Details of verb)	Jarr جَرّ (word after OF)	–
ـٌ or ـُ	ـًا or ـَ	ـٍ or ـِ	–
مُسْلِمٌ	مُسْلِمًا	مُسْلِمٍ

- The word is in رَفْع status, in Arabic it is مَرْفُوعٌ
- Similarly, in نَصْب status called it is مَنْصُوبٌ
- And in جَرّ status called it is مَجْرُورٌ

Ending sounds are Important in Arabic!

- In English for instance, order of words in a sentence matters significantly but in Arabic the ending sounds of the words matters significantly (order has some effects, but it does not change the main theme completely)
- In English: we may write:

  Joe kicked Bob Now if we interchange 1st and 3rd words we get:

  Bob kicked Joe The meaning is entirely changed.

Next slide will explain it in the context of Arabic.

Example in Arabic: Suppose we know the meanings of the following 3 words:

سَاعَدَ ⟶ to help (verb/Fil) | المُدَرِّسُ ⟶ the teacher | الطَّالِبُ⟷ the student

- Now consider the following Arabic Sentence:

  سَاعَدَ المُدَرِّسُ الطَّالِبَ which means "The teacher helped the student"

Example in Arabic: Suppose we know the meanings of the following 3 words:

سَاعَدَ ⟶ to help (verb/Fil) | المُدَرِّسُ ⟶ the teacher | الطَّالِبُ⟷ the student

- Now consider the following Arabic Sentence:

  سَاعَدَ المُدَرِّسُ الطَّالِبَ which means "The teacher helped the student"

- Now we change the order of the words:

  المُدَرِّسُ سَاعَدَ الطَّالِبَ which means the same i.e. "The teacher helped the student"

Example in Arabic: Suppose we know the meanings of the following 3 words:

سَاعَدَ ⟶ to help (verb/Fil) | المُدَرِّسُ ⟶ the teacher | الطَّالِبُ⟷ the student

- Now consider the following Arabic Sentence:

  سَاعَدَ المُدَرِّسُ الطَّالِبَ which means "The teacher helped the student"

- Now we change the order of the words:

  المُدَرِّسُ سَاعَدَ الطَّالِبَ which means the same i.e. "The teacher helped the student"

- Here the same Sentence with a minor variation of ending sounds:

  سَاعَدَ المُدَرِّسَ الطَّالِبُ which means "The student helped the teacher"

  The meaning is entirely changed!!

Ending sounds: Example from the Quran – The word ٱللَّهُ

1. Raf' رَفْع (Doer) ends with ـٌ or ـُ

> لَوْ أَرَادَ ٱللَّهُ If Allah had intended... 39:4 part

2. Nasb نَصْب (Details of verb) ends with ـًا or ـَ

> فَٱعْبُدُ ٱللَّهَ So, worship Allah.. 39:4 part

3. Jarr جَرّ (word after OF) ends with ـٍ or ـِ

> وَ أَرْضُ ٱللَّهِ وَٰسِعَةٌ And the earth of Allah is spacious.. 39:4 part

Arabic Number and Gender[1]: (no details included)

- In Arabic unlike English (where we have only Singular and Plural) we have:
  1. Singular (1 entity)
  2. Dual (2 entities)
  3. Many (3 or more entities)
- In Arabic a noun can be either Masculine or Feminine

Example from the Quran

Example from Surah Fahita:

- الْحَمْدُ $\longrightarrow$ 1R

Example from the Quran

Example from Surah Fahita:

- رَبِّ $\longrightarrow$ 1J

Example from the Quran

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

- الْحَمْدُ ⟶ 1R
- لِلَّهِ ⟶ 1J
- رَبِّ ⟶ 1J
- الْعَالَمِينَ ⟶ 3NJ

Our Status So far..

- Upto now we know how to determine status, gender and number for a given noun.
  For example: when we say (الْعَالَمِينَ 3NJ) we are essentially determining its status (i.e. here it is either Nasb or Jar), its gender (default is Masculine) and its number (i.e. many)
- The Big Picture looks like:

Ism: Light Vs Heavy

- Lightness and heaviness are not from among the four properties of the اسم. Rather, the discussion of light and heavy is a sub-topic that falls under status.
- An اسم is heavy (by-default) or it may have another short version called Light. But they do mean the same thing, i.e. number and status will remain same.

- The Combined Table 7 is the default pattern set: they are heavy. They all end with a نْ sound. More precisely they end with either نْ نِ نَ
- Removing ending نْ sound will convert them to Light (Remove ending نْ نِ نَ) NOT the نْ which is already part of the original word.
- For example: مُسْلِمُونَ (Heavy) ⟶ مُسْلِمُو (Light)
- Light version will not change its status/gender/number. In the above example the light version ism مُسْلِمُو is still 3R (Masc.)

Ism: Light Why?

There are 4 reasons:

1. It is partly flexible (will be covered soon), name of place,non-arab names, certain plurals and adjectives, comparatives.
2. If it is a Mudaf (possessive form like x of y, here x is mudaf, will be covered later)
3. When one being called then it is light. Example: We say: يارَحْمَنُ
4. For strong / absolute negation. Example: لَاإِلَهَ

Ism with ال Heavy-Light Not Applied

- Note that the discussion of heavy and light becomes irrelevant when the word has an ال on it.
- This is because نيونت and ال NEVER come together.
  Example: the word المُسلِمٌ is incorrect. The correct word is المُسلِمُ
- The words that end in ن on the other hand, keep their ن even when there is an ال on the word.
  Example: The word المُسلِمُون is correct. No need to drop ن

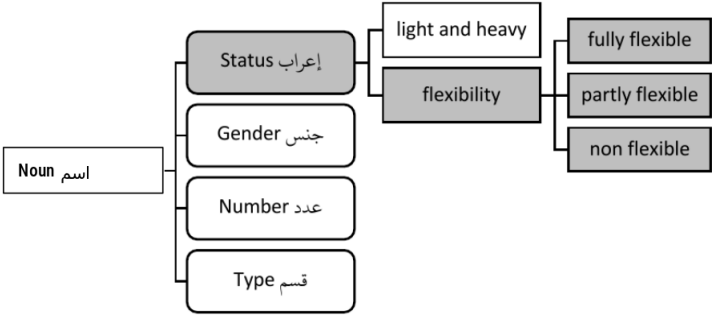
Flexibility[1] of Ism

Flexibility is not one of the four properties of the اسم. Rather, it is a sub-topic under status.



Flexibility

- The discussion of flexibility only pertains to words that have an ENDING SOUND. For flexibility we are only focused on the following parts of the Muslim Chart:

Plural	Duel	Singular	Status
~~مُسْلِمُونَ~~ 3R	~~مُسْلِمَانِ~~ 2R	مُسْلِمٌ 1R	⟵ Rafa رَفْع (Doer)
~~مُسْلِمِينَ~~ 3N	~~مُسْلِمَيْنِ~~ 2N	مُسْلِمًا 1N	⟵ Nasb نَصْب (Details of verb)
~~مُسْلِمِينَ~~ 3J	~~مُسْلِمَيْنِ~~ 2J	مُسْلِمٍ 1J	⟵ Jar جَرّ (after OF)

Table 14: Flexibility is applicable for Ending Sound (Singular) only

Flexibility

3 Forms of Flexibility:

1. Fully-flexible (F): It is the default state for a word. It has 3 status with 3 unique endings i.e. J N R ـٌ ـًا ـٍ
2. Partly-flexible (P): 3 status with 2 endings i.e. J N R ـُ ـَ ـِ. Note: it can never take تَنْوِيْن
3. Non-flexible (N): They have 3 status with 1 sound. They dont change. This means that they look the same in the رفع نصب جر status.

Fully-flexible are already covered in our earlier lessons, all previous tables/charts are fully-flexible. So, here only last 2 will be discussed.

Fully-flexible (F): Examples

مُحَمَّدٍ	مُحَمَّدًا	مُحَمَّدٌ
هُوْدٍ	هُوْدًا	هُوْدٌ
صالِحٍ	صالِحًا	صالِحٌ
شُعَيْبٍ	شُعَيْبًا	شُعَيْبٌ

Fully-flexible (F): Examples

- There is one exception to this rule. Three-letter names with a سُكُون on the middle letter are always fully-flexible, even if they are non-Arab names.

جر	نصب	رفع
لُوْطٍ	لُوْطًا	لُوْطٌ
نُوْحٍ	نُوْحًا	نُوْحٌ

Figure 4: Fully-flexible even they are non-Arab names

Partly-flexible (P)

How do we identify them?

Need to memorize them, but some generic guideline can be given as below:

- Most Non-Arab words are Partly-flexible (P).
  Example: J N R يُوسُفُ يُوسُفَ يُوسُفَ
- Arab words of Names of Places are also Partly-flexible (P)
  Example: J N R يَثْرِبُ يَثْرِبَ يَثْرِبَ
  (the name of a place, now called Madina)
- The word Madina مَدِينَةٌ is a general Arabic Word which means a city, so it it F مَدِينَةٌ مَدِينَةً مَدِينَةٍ is a correct format.

How do we identify them?

- All feminine names are partly-flexible. Masculine names that have no feminine counterpart are also partly-flexible.
- There are times when a partly-flexible word can be made fully flexible by showing a ـِ in جر form in 2 ways:
  1. by adding an ال
  2. by making it a (possessive) مُضَاف

Partly-flexible (P): Example

- A. All Non-Arab names are partly-flexible.

جر	نصب	رفع
يُوْسُفَ	يُوْسُفَ	يُوْسُفُ
إِسْماعِيْلَ	إِسْماعِيْلَ	إِسْماعِيْلُ

Partly-flexible (P): Example (Exception)

- C (Exception) Some names of places have an ال . In such cases, the name is fully-flexible.

جر	نصب	رفع
العِراقِ	العِراقَ	العِراقُ
الهِنْدِ	الهِنْدَ	الهِنْدُ

Non-flexible

- They have only one form in any status. They will have same form in all places/roles.
- Words that end with أَلِفْ مَقْصُورَة i.e. ى or normal أَلِفْ i.e. ا are non-flexible.
  Example: J N R مُوسَىٰ مُوسَىٰ مُوسَىٰ
- All pointing words (both singular and plural) are non-flexible.

Pronouns الضمير

Pronouns are a special type of اسم that do not display their four properties in a standard way. We will learn about two types of pronouns in this lesson:

(i) Independent Pronouns

(ii) Attached Pronouns

Independent Pronouns

	Plural	Pair	Singular
third person	هُمْ They	هُما Both of them	هُوَ He	masculine
	هُنَّ They	هُما Both of them	هِيَ She	feminine second person	أَنْتُمْ All of you	أَنْتُما You two	أَنْتَ You	masculine أَنْتُنَّ All of you	أَنْتُما You two	أَنْتِ You	feminine first person	نَحْنُ We	أَنَا I		both

- Independent pronouns are always in the رفع status (i.e. Doer).(do not look into its ending sound or combination.)
- As for type, pronouns are always proper.
- For number and gender follow the charts given.

Independent Pronouns Memorize Them

Person	Plural	Pair	Singular	Gender
3rd Person (S/He/They)	هُمْ They	هُمَا Both of them	هُوَ He	masculine
	هُنَّ They	هُمَا Both of them	هِيَ She	feminine
2nd Person (You)	أَنْتُمْ All of you help	أَنْتُمَا Both of you	أَنْتَ You	masculine
	أَنْتُنَّ All of you	أَنْتُمَا Both of you	أَنْتِ You	feminine
1st Person (I/We)	نَحْنُ We help		أَنَا I help	both

Independent Pronouns Example

Remember Independent Pronouns are always رفع or Doer.

قُلْ هُوَ ٱللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ﴿١﴾

Say, "He is Allah, [who is] One.

112:1

Independent Pronouns Example 2

Remember Independent Pronouns are always رفع or Doer.

هُوَ ٱلَّذِىٓ أَنزَلَ عَلَيْكَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ مِنْهُ ءَايَٰتٌ مُّحْكَمَٰتٌ هُنَّ أُمُّ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ

It is He who has sent down to you, [O Muammad], the Book; in it are verses [that are] precise – they are the foundation of the Book...

3:7 (part)

Note: Here, the pronoun هُنَّ (they (f)) corresponds to the ءَايَٰتٌ (verses, (f))

Attached Pronouns

	Plural	Pair	Singular
third person	هُمْ هِمْ They	هُما هِما Both of them	ـهُ ـهِ He	masculine
	هُنَّ هِنَّ They	هُما هِما Both of them	هَا She	feminine second person	كُمْ All of you	كُما You two	كَ You	masculine كُنَّ All of you	كُما You two	كِ You	feminine first person	نا We	(جر) ي (نصب) نِيْ I		both

- So far we have learned 12 Independent Pronouns, each of them has an attached counterpart which is called Attached Pronouns.
- They are called Attached Pronouns because they always come at the end of a word i.e. attached to a word.
- Attached pronouns are always either in the نصب or جر status.

Attached Pronouns Memorize Them

Person	Plural	Pair	Singular	Gender
3rd Person (S/He/They)	هُمْ هِمْ They	هُمَا هِمَا Both of them	هُ هِ He/it	masculine
	هُنَّ هِنَّ They	هُمَا هِمَا Both of them	هَا She	feminine
2nd Person (You)	كُمْ All of you	كُمَا Both of you	كَ You	masculine
	كُنَّ All of you	كُمَا Both of you	كِ You	feminine

A new Term: Jarr-Majroor

- Nouns become مَـجْـرُوْرٌ if they come after any particles (like preposition) as mentioned.

Idafa الإِضَافَة Possession

- In English we write: "The house of Allah" and "Allah's House" without any difference. But in Arabic, we only write "The house of Allah". Here "The house" is called Mudaf مُضَاف and the word after "OF" (i.e. Allah) is called Mudaf Elaihi مُضَاف إِلَيهِ.

- In Arabic there is no word for "OF". Two words sit next to each other and the desired properties of these words will reveal that there is an invisible "OF" between them.

Idafa الإِضَافَة Possession: Conditions

- Mudaf [1] مُضَاف must meet 2 conditions:
  i. The Mudaf مُضَاف must be light (no n sound at the end)
  ii. The Mudaf مُضَاف can not have definite article ال
- Mudaf Elaihi مُضَاف إِلَيهِ must meet 1 condition:
  i. It must be in the جر status.

Special Note: Remember both Mudaf مُضَاف and Mudaf Elaihi مُضَاف إِلَيهِ must be Noun[2] اسم and they must appear next to each other, no word should come between them.

Idafa الإِضَافَة : 3 Examples

- In Fully Flexible Noun it is very easy to recognize (with e sound)

- followed by جر

رَسُوْلُ اللهِ

- light
- no ال

the Prophet of Allah

- In Partly Flexible Noun it appears as "a" sound in place of "e" sound.

- partly-flexible word, shows جر with a فتحة

وَجُنُوْدُ إِبْلِيْسَ

- light
- no ال

the soldiers of Iblis

- In Non-Flexible (N) noun it remains unchanged:

- non-flexible word cannot show status

قَوْمُ مُوْسَى

- light
- no ال

the people of Musa

Idafa الإِضَافَة : Examples

مُضَاف $\xleftarrow{\text{Next Word}}$ مُضَاف إِلَيهِ

رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ Lord OF the worlds.

- Here, رَبِّ is Light and there is no ال so, it is مُضَاف
- Now the second word, الْعَالَمِينَ could be J or N, but since we have already got a مُضَاف we give the benefit of doubt and confirm that it must be in جر status as a required condition to be a مُضَاف إِلَيهِ

Idafa الإِضَافَة Chain: Multiple "OF"

- We will see the identical structure in Arabic Language soon.

Idafa الإِضَافَة Chain: Example

Lets consider 1:4 from Quran: مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ the Owner OF the Day OF Judgment[1].

الدِّينِ يَوْمِ مَالِكِ

- Here, مَالِكِ is مُضَاف (No ال and it is light)
- And يَوْمِ here is مُضَاف إِلَيهِ.

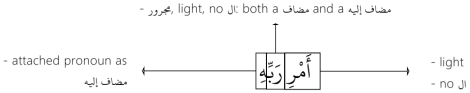
مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ

- Here, يَوْمِ is مُضَاف (No ال and it is light)
- And الدِّينِ here is مُضَاف إِلَيهِ.

So, the middle word here يَوْمِ is both مُضَاف and مُضَاف إِلَيهِ.

Idafa الإِضَافَة Chain: More Examples

- The Middle Word serves both as مُضَاف and مُضَاف إِلَيهِ



his Master's command

the mention of the mercy of your Master

Status of الإِضافَة

- Recall that the الإِضافَة is one of the fragments in Arabic. Fragment is more than word but less than sentence. Generally it consists of more than one words but it is treated as a single unit.
- What is the status of such fragment?
  Ans: Status of the main word of the fragment i.e. here the first word or مُضَاف status will determine the status of the entire unit.

  Example: Status of رَسُلُ ٱللَّهِ is رَفْع while Status of رَسُلَ ٱللَّهِ is نَصْب

  and Status of رَسُلِ ٱللَّهِ is جَرّ

Speicial Mudaf مضاف

- There is a handful of words in Arabic that always appear as مُضَاف
- Any "ism" after these words must be مُضَاف إِلَيهِ i.e. it is مَجْرُورٌ [we don't need to apply any rule to determine it]
- They do not show the functionality "OF"

between	بَيْنَ	in front of	أَمامَ	above	فَوْقَ around/surrounding	حَوْلَ	behind	خَلْفَ	under	تَحْتَ
with/at/by	عِنْدَ	right in front of	قَدَّامَ	before	قَبْلَ
with/in support of	مَعَ	far behind	وَراءَ	after	بَعْدَ
especially from	مِنْ لَدُنْ	in the presence of	لَدَى	besides/other than/less than	دُونَ

Speicial Mudaf مضاف : Example

Next word must be مُضَاف إِلَيهِ or equivalently مَجْرُورٌ (e sound at the end)

- عِنْدَ اللَّهِ Near Allah
- عِنْدَ رَبِّكُمْ Near your Lord
- حَوْلَكُمْ Around you
- حَوْلَهَا Around it (feminine)
- فَوْقَ الْعَذَابِ On the punishment (16:88)
- فَوقَ الأَرْضِ Above the earth

5 Special إِسم Nouns: الأَسْماءُ الخمسة

Basic Concept:

- Consider the إِسم Noun أَبٌ which means "Father".
- The Heavy version is: أَبُونْ أَبًا أَبٍ the Expected Light version is: ~~أَبُ أَبَ أَبِ~~ which is wrong.
- But the Correct Light Version is أَبُو أَبَا أَبِي
- So, the Light version is achieved by adding a Long Vowel at the end.

5 Special إِسم Nouns: الأَسْماءُ الخمسة Cont.

- Following 5 إِسم Nouns commonly appear as مُضَاف

		AS مضاف

possessor of	---	ذِيْ	ذا	ذُوْ

Note: Remember that this only occurs when these words appear as مُضَاف. When they do not appear as مُضَاف, they look like any other إِسم and display their status like any other إِسم.
